Transform lives... renew the campus... change the world...

New Semester... New Students... New Vision...

As the fall semester began it seemed like we all were running full force expecting God to do amazing things on campus. During club day, a day in which all the clubs on campus publicize their club, we met over 150 people through surveying and giving out free rootbeer floats. We had a bowling event that same week in which over 30 students attended, many of which were non-Christian. It is evident that God is moving on the Southwestern campus and the students are yearning for something whether it's God, a sense of community or a place to belong.

It is our hope that through the five Bible studies on campus students will be able to be transformed through God's word and naturally reach out to others on campus to share what God is doing. We also have weekly Thursday night gatherings in which our group not only can grow in community through sporting events and hangout times but also give their friends an opportunity to experience God through relationships. Hopefully soon we will have the opportunity to have an on campus large group gathering which can give another opportunity for students to grow spiritually.

God is doing amazing things on the campus of Southwestern and amongst the students. There is a ton of more work to be done, but it is exciting to see what more He can do.

Please pray for more! More students... more leaders... more opportunities to share God on campus... More students transformed by the power of God... More!

I wake up every morning knowing that when I walk on campus I will be talking to someone about God.

Fundraising Update

Thank you for all your support and prayers last school year. I ended up raising all that I needed because of your generous support. This school year I need to raise over $54,000. Would you consider giving regularly or a one time gift towards the ministry at Southwestern College. Let me know if you want more info or give online at www.intervarsity.org/donate/to/jacklyn_andrada

61% of Jacklyn Andrada's 08-09 budget raised so far... remaining: $21,389

Thanks for everything. God bless.

Praises...

- Three students (Marta, Oliver and Rosario) making a first time decision to follow Jesus.
- For two new student leaders (Jay & Orlando).
- For the 14+ students from Southwestern that are going to our fall conference.

Please Pray..

- That God would continue to be working in Marta, Oliver and Rosario and strengthen their faith.
- For all the students that will attend our fall conference, that they will experience God in a powerful way and be transformed.
- For my fundraising. That He would provide people that want to support and partner with the ministry at Southwestern.
